Dear Parents/Carer

I am writing to you to politely remind you of the text year 8 will be studying this term. Students will begin to study My Name is Leon after the assessment week (week commencing 4th March).

- My Name Is Leon by Kit de Waal ISBN: 9780241207086

There are several different editions of this text which are also acceptable if this specific editions is unavailable. Please note that World of Books (<https://www.wob.com/en-gb>) offer a range of different second-hand texts at extremely affordable prices, along with free postage.

By purchasing a copy, it will mean that when this text is studied, your son/daughter can make notes within their copy, and they will be able to use it at home and for revision.

If you have any questions or concerns about purchasing texts or about any key stage 3 English matter, please feel free to contact me at the following email address:
