Dear Parents/Carers,

I am delighted to introduce myself as the new Headteacher of the Arthur Terry School. It is a privilege to be in a position to build on the success that has already been achieved. I am committed to ensuring your children get the very best education both in terms of academic success and the opportunity to have fun and make memories. I make no apologies for my sky-high expectations in terms of effort, attitude and behaviour and know that, regardless of circumstances, every child can achieve amazing things.

I have over 20 years of experience in education across the West Midlands, starting as a History teacher in Sandwell and more recently as Headteacher of Wolgarston High School in Staffordshire where outcomes consistently exceed local and national averages. In my spare time, I am a passionate owner of two sausage dogs (Winnie and Hattie) and volunteer for Pets as Therapy.

Having grown up locally, I have always admired the Arthur Terry School and its commitment to be the very best in terms of academic success and personal development. From my visits to the school and from meeting the staff and students; it is clear there is a real sense of pride and community. I have already had the pleasure of watching the school production of Rock of Ages and was blown away by the talented cast and the hard work of staff.

The partnership with you as parents and carers is vital to your children's success. I look forward to working with you so that your child can achieve amazing things at Arthur Terry.

Kind regards

Jo Fairclough
Headteacher
